

Gyan Bharati School Saket, New Delhi

DATE: 11.07.24

NAME OF THE EVENT: ASSEMBLY- Plants

CLASS: P1-A, P1-B

TEACHERS INCHARGE: Ms. Anju Nayyar, Ms. Anjali Madan, Ms. Neha Pawar, Ms. Aksha

The students of P1A and P1B at Gyan Bharati School, recently had an opportunity to present an assembly on the theme of plants.

The assembly commenced with a serene mental journey setting a tone for the event. Enchanting dance performance on Guru Vandana by Driya was appreciated by all. The children then confidently delivered informative dialogues about the various parts of a plant. An engaging quiz on the parts of plants further involved the audience, making the session interactive and educational.

Using vibrant flashcards, the students creatively illustrated the numerous uses of plants, highlighting their importance in our daily lives. The assembly culminated in a mesmerizing dance performance, "Chipko Re Chipko," passionately spreading the message of saving plants and environmental conservation. The children's enthusiasm and talent left a lasting impression on everyone present.

