

Gyan Bharati School, Saket
New Delhi

Date: 13.08.2024

Name Of The Event: Independence Day Celebration

Teacher Incharge: Ms Sawinder Kaur

Report:

On August 13, 2024, GyanBharati School celebrated this glorious day with great enthusiasm and patriotic fervor. The day was marked by a series of events designed to instill national pride and educate students about the significance of independence. The school organized a cultural programme on this occasion. Chief Guest Lt. Gen. Mohinder Puri, PVSM, UYSM Rtd. presided over the function. The programme commenced with a soulful rendition of Medhasuktam by the school choir followed by a visually spectacular presentation of the national anthem in sign language by the CWSN. This was followed by thought-provoking speeches on the real meaning of freedom by the school prefects. The main attraction of the cultural event was Rupak in which the students presented a series of patriotic songs, including “Aage Badho” accompanied by vibrant dance performances as well as impressive theatrical presentation by the middle and senior school students. The performances were well-received by both students and faculty as they adroitly captured the spirit of national pride. The Independence Day celebrations were a resounding success, combining educational elements with performing arts. The events not only honored the historical significance of the day but also fostered a sense of national glory and unity among the students.

The celebrations concluded with a meaningful speech by the Chief Guest who reiterated the importance of cherishing and upholding the values of discipline and integrity. The School Principal Dr. Mrs. Mudita Sharma, in her articulate address, motivated the students to introspect and realize their true potential to be an asset to the nation. The School Director Mrs. Lata Vaidyanathan eloquently stressed upon the need to uphold the intrinsic Indian values. She further encouraged the students to carry forth the spirit of unity, the commitment to service, and the determination to continually elevate our great nation.

The day left a lasting impression on both students and staff, reinforcing the spirit of independence that binds us all.

