Teacher In-charge(s): Mrs. Aarushi Choudhary & Ms. Vanshika Kohli
(counsellors)

Report:

The conference brought together educators & counselors to discuss the pressing need for integrating guidance and counseling into mainstream education, with a focus on addressing the evolving needs of students, the event highlighted the role of guidance in fostering holistic development, academic excellence, and emotional well-being.

Panelists discussed the growing complexities faced by students due to technological advancements, peer pressure, and career uncertainties. They stressed the need for proactive interventions, career counseling, and emotional support to help students navigate these challenges. Educators shared best practices for embedding guidance into daily teaching, including life skills programs, workshops, and mentorship initiatives. The session also covered how guidance aligns with the New Education Policy (NEP 2020).

Experts proposed up-skilling teachers in basic counseling techniques to act as first-line support for students. This included training modules, certifications, and continuous professional development programs. The conference concluded with a vote of thanks, acknowledging the efforts of the organizers, speakers, and participants. It served as a call to action for educators to prioritize guidance-based education as a cornerstone of student development. The participants left with a renewed commitment to creating a supportive and inclusive educational environment.
