ABHIMANYU AND DHRUV HOUSE FUNCTION

ANNUAL FUNCTION CELEBRATES NORTHERN INDIA

Abhimanyu and Dhruv house collectively presented Gyan Bharati School's third Annual house function on Friday, 19th July 2024 highlighting the northern States of India, showcasing a variety of art forms and various emotions.

The function was inaugurated with the Lighting of the Lamp and by seeking the blessings of Maa Saraswati. The event began with the recital of Orchestra titled 'Pahadi Jugni' whereas the invocation 'Kun Faya Kun' focused on the connection between the almighty and the human soul.

SUFI AND ECO-PLAY SHINE

The students performed a spiritual Sufi qawwali known as "Dama Dum Mast Kalandar"- a true piece of art originally written by Amir Khusrow. The main showstopper of the function was the play called "Badshah ki Garmi" which told us about the importance of planting trees.

BRIDES OF INDIA: A SHOWCASE OF TRADITION AND DANCE

Lastly, the 'Brides of India' stole the show. The traditional wedding attires of four distinct regions of India i.e. Ladakh, Uttar Pradesh, Kashmir and Punjab were showcased which was followed by Haryanvi, Himachali and Punjabi folk dance performances.

APPRECIATION FOR INDIA'S CULTURAL EXPLORATION

The school Director Mrs. Lata Vaidyanathan admired the theme of exploring various states of India and encouraged the children to grab knowledge from this initiative. The principal Dr.(Mrs.) Mudita Sharma expressed her gratitude at seeing various elements of the function being linked together elegantly.
