Baithak - MEET THE AUTHOR

Gyan Bharati School, Saket embarked on a journey to celebrate the joy of reading through its Literary Fest from 15th April to 19th April, 2024. The fest kickstarted with 'Baithak', a captivating 'Meet the Author Session' featuring the esteemed guest, Mrs. Sutapa Basu, an author, educationist and writing coach

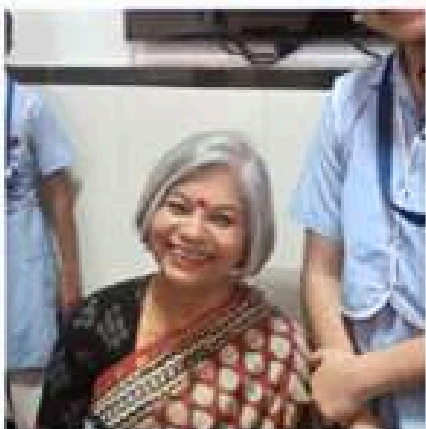

The session commenced with a stimulating discussion, with the panelists sharing their insightful perspectives on various literary works authored by Mrs. Basu. Among the notable works discussed were her debut novel 'Dangle', alongside her historical narratives including 'Padmavati', 'The Birth of My Nation' 'The Cursed Inheritance' and many more.

Engaging with the audience, Mrs. Basu addressed pertinent questions from our budding writers, enriching their understanding of the creative process

STUDENTS WERE ALSO PROVIDED WITH THE OPPORTUNITY TO EXPLORE MRS. BASU'S LITERARY REPERTOIRE, WITH HER BOOKS AVAILABLE FOR PURCHASE. EXCITEMENT FILLED THE AIR AS STUDENTS EAGERLY QUEUED UP TO HAVE THEIR COPIES SIGNED BY THE AUTHOR HERSELF, MAKING THE FEST AN UNFORGETTABLE EXPERIENCE FOR ALL.

IN THE SPIRIT OF GARRISON KEILLOR'S WORDS, THE FEST REMINDED US THAT A BOOK TRULY IS A GIFT THAT CAN OPEN AGAIN AND AGAIN, ENRICHING OUR LIVES WITH EACH TURN OF A PAGE.

A Story telling session and another workshop on Debating Skills and public speaking abilities were also organized in collaboration with Times NIE. A workshop on News Reporting in collaboration with The Hindu was conducted by Mr. Ziya Us Salam, Associate Editor at The Hindu.

Children participated in assemblies that allowed them to explore literary genres through theatrical performances. Through a blend of educational experiences, cultural immersion and creative expression, students were inspired to embark on a lifelong journey of discovery and learning through the pages of books and the melodies of music.
