

RANTHAMBORE

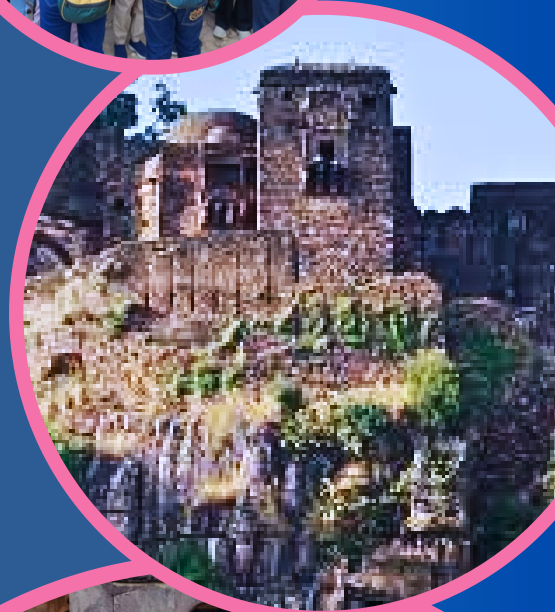

diaries

DAY 1

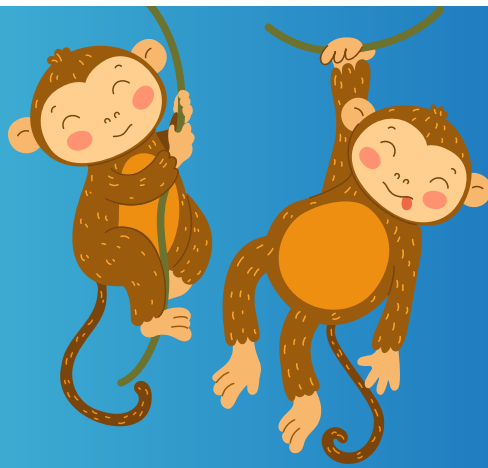

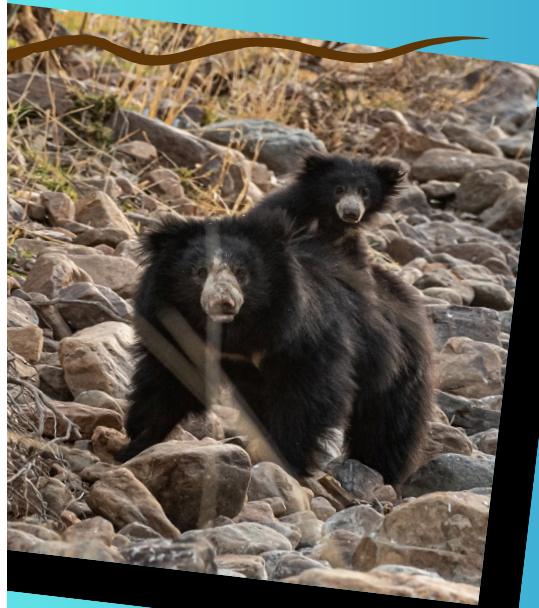

As the sun rose on a sleepy Saturday, the students of class 12 started on a momentous journey. The students assembled at school early in the morning and were off by 6:15 a.m. After arriving, the students freshened up and set off to Ranthambore Fort, where they learned about its rich history.

- Navlakha gate
- Atipaul gate
- Ganeshpaul
- Andheri gate

The students played camp games as they had evening snacks, and a cultural program with folk singing and dancing was held. They were given time to journal and then had dinner.

3 days and
2 nights

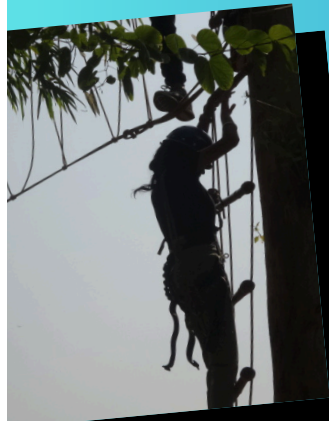

DAY
Two

Activities

- High Rope Course
- Mission: Impossible
- Safari
- DJ Night

RANTHAMBORE diaries

RANTHAMBORE

diaries

DAY 3

On the last day, students exercised after morning tea, and were given awards after breakfast. They then departed for Delhi at around 10 am.

Happy Journey!

So how was your day? Can you summarize it in 40 words?
 Today was momentous for me as this is my first trip. It was very fun, even as I got tired of walking at the fort. The stories about the fort were highly interesting & I was deeply engrossed in the history. It was even more memorable because of my friends, who pushed me to keep going. I can't wait for tomorrow, but never want today to end!!

So how was your day? Can you summarize it in 40 words?
 My day was a bit tiring but fun. I travelled for 5 hrs & had a picnic. Then we went to a fort. I loved taking pictures with my friend. Had a lot of fun.

So how was your day? Can you summarize it in 40 words?
 Laughs are the one thing that can exactly define today's day. Today's experience was one of a kind. It was a bliss to be able to come to the camp. Exploring new adventures is always my thing and the camp exactly fulfilled the quest.

So how was your day? Can you summarize it in 40 words?
 It was blissful. Each moment I spent here taught me skills and lessons that enabled me to grow as a person holistically. The visit to the fort was informative and enjoyable. An amazing day indeed!

So how was your day? Can you summarize it in 40 words?
 It was a day filled with joy, laughter and lots of walking. It was tiring enough but worth every moment with our friends. The car games were a great way to bond better with the members of your trip!

So how was your day? Can you summarize it in 40 words?
 It was a wonderful day. The route to the fort was pretty peaceful and the old breeze was made my day. It was perfect and photos we took and story we got to know was pretty interesting.

